The PEPH Resource Center: A New, More Convenient Login

This presentation will describe how to set up and use the Resource Center's new login.

What is the PEPH Resource Center?

- It is a repository/library of environmental health materials.
- It was launched in 2010.
- It has close to 700 subscribers.
- It has close 500 materials created by NIEHS grantees and partners.

What are some of the recent updates?

- Users can “Like” and comment on materials.
- Users can note their expertise on their profiles.
- Users can manage their e-mail notifications.
- The homepage now includes:
 - Recently added materials
 - Trending materials
 - Most liked materials
- Users have new login options!

What are the login options?

- NIHEXT Account:
This is the original login method. If it works for you, then you can keep using it.
- Social Login:
This lets you log in with your Google, PayPal, or VeriSign account.
- Research Organization Login:
Log in with your university credentials. (You must belong to a federated university.)

What are the benefits of the new login methods?

- You can use a username and password that you already have.
- You do not need to remember yet another password.
- You do not need to update your password every 60 days.

How do you change to a Social Login or Research Organization Login? It's easy!

Step 1: Log in with your NIH/NIHEXT account.

- Select NIH Staff from the Account Type dropdown list.
- Enter your username and password.
- Remember: You do not need to add NIH or NIHEXT to your username.

Select your Account Type.

The screenshot shows the NIH Trust login page. At the top, there is a banner with the NIH Trust logo and the text "NIH SECURE IDENTITY SOLUTIONS". Below the banner, the text "Account Type:" is followed by a dropdown menu. The dropdown menu is open, showing the following options: "-- Select Value --", "NIH Staff", "Research Organizations", and "Social Login". Below the dropdown menu, there is a "Warning Notice" section with the text: "This is a U.S. Government computer system, which may be accessed and used by authorized personnel only. All information on this computer system may be intercepted, recorded, read, copied, or disseminated. Access or use of this computer system by any person, whether authorized or not, is prohibited." The background of the page features a photograph of the National Institutes of Health building.

If you are using your NIH/NIHEXT login, just enter your username and password, as before.

The screenshot shows the NIH Trust login interface. At the top, there is a header with the NIH Trust logo and the text "NIH SECURE IDENTITY SOLUTIONS". Below the header, there is a dropdown menu for "Account Type" with "NIH Staff" selected. Underneath, there are two input fields: "User Name:" and "Password:". To the right of the password field is a link labeled "Change Password". At the bottom center, there is a prominent "Log in" button.

If you are using a Social login, select Google, PayPal, or VeriSign.
